

TINTED LOVE

"IF YOUR GAME-DAY sunglasses only feel appropriate when you're on the course, you're overthinking it." That's the word of Nashville-based image consultant Kari Sims Vaughn, who sees this—ahem—lack of vision in her golf clients' glasses, game-day in and day out. "Men fail to see the style power in carrying over, say, a sunglass they'd wear with a suit and tie to the course, which can immediately spike your 'cool' factor." And those Aviators you've rocked since college? "Consistency is admirable," Vaughn says. "If you can't part ways with a favorite style, then at least experiment with new frame materials and lens colors." Or, as she recommends, take a swing at one of these:

1 Maui Jim—Bamboo Forest Rootbeer Fade

Kari says: "Performance meets style in this wrap frame. The change-up from black to—yep, 'rootbeer'—says you're serious about style."

2 Under Armour—Ignitor 2.0 Storm Polarized

$160 underarmour.com

Kari says: "These are super-cool. While I wouldn't recommend pairing them with business attire, they rock with any outdoor activity you're into."

3 Persol—P07359S The New Generation

$390 persol.com

Kari says: "Modern luxury and prestige. Freshest new take on Persol design."

4 Oakley—Elmont Medium Polarized Polished Chrome

$203 oakley.com

Kari says: "Cool and casual. Dressed up or dressed down, lounging or playing, these simple, sophisticated specs can work for you."

5 Rayban—Original Wayfarer

$153 ray-ban.com

Kari says: "More than cool. Vintage vibe hips up your approach to even the most sophisticated style."

6 Initium Eyewear—Revelation Tortoise with Amber Gradient Lens

$329 initiumeyewear.com

Kari says: "These exude total confidence and style originality. Highly stylized frame that's definitely more fashion-driven. Bolder. Sexier." (You may recognize them from the Iron Man movies.)
